BAPTIST MINISTERS HAILE CLUB ORCHESTRA DISCUSSED MORMONISM Paper Read & Rev. F. O. Cunningham Made Entertaining Programme

at Noank Meeting. The ministers' conference of New London county met Monday at the Noank Baptist church for its first session of this year. At the morning session Rev. F. O. Cunningham of Norwich read a paper on Mormonism which was followed by a spirited dis-cussion. In this discussion both the base conditions of Mormon life were rought out, and also the fact that the formon propaganda had some notice able headway in eastern Connecticut. Among other points noted were that 70 per cent. of the converts to this sect

INFANT CHRISTENED.

Four Generations at Ceremony When Son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Holmes of New Britain Was Named.

A christening at which four generadons were represented took place on Sunday afternoon at St. Mark's church, Sunday afternoon at St. Mark's church, New Britain, says the Hartford Courant, when Rector H. I. Bodley christened the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Holmes, as Morgan Noble Holmes. The child's first name is after his grandmother on his father's side of the house and the middle name is after his grandfather on the Black, health officer, in his maternal side. The happy grandfather port which was read before of common council in its Howard C. Noble of the North & Judd Howard C. Noble of the North & Judd Co., was in attendance at the christening, as was also Mr. Noble's mother, Mrs. Eliza C. Noble, the child's greatgrandmother. Mrs. Noble is 87 years old and she drove to the christening in her son's limousine. She is very keen of intellect, and on her way down to the christening remarked to her son, "We are having a double christening—a new car and a new baby." The way one man with the interests of his city at heart boosted Norwich when given an opportunity recently, is shown by the letter quoted herewith and written by Adelard Morin of the Piaut-Cadden store, who was asked about Norwich by one of his friends who had located in Brooklyn, Conn. The inquirer, who had come to know Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him, asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him asked Mr. Morin through a business transaction with him through the properties of friends here for the week end.

is indicated by the following extract from his letter: "Your questions are more than interesting to me, owing to the fact that a like situation has arisen with me in the past, and I believe that you will appreciate some of the good points about our city of Norwich

"While it may seem to you that my advice and opinion in the matter appears very enthusiastic, you may rest assured that the following informa-tion is my candid opinion, and based entirely upon actual experience. one, inasmuch as while our city proper has only about 28,000 population, the immediate vicinity is very close to another ten or fifteen thousand, con-equently you will appreciate that this nakes practically one city of a com-bined population of nearly 50,900. We are within 14 miles of direct connection with New York and Bos-ton. Of these cities, Boston can be reached in three ways, either via Putnam, via Shore line, New London, or via trolley to Westerly and then Shore line to Boston, which shortens the distance materially as well as the cost. We have two steamship lines going to New York, one daily out of New London with train connec-tions from Norwich, and one three days a week out of Norwich, Conn., and to hear the election returns. The auditorium was well filled throughout the evening and much interest was evident in the election results as splendid facilities for shipping, etc., shown on the blackboard.

The stream of t Art slides shown through the stereoptican by Don Houghton proved entertaining and pleasing. Solos were rendered by Mrs. George T. Lord, Miss Elsie Brand and Walter F. Lester. The Halle club orchestra furnished a programme of selections. Refreshments were served by members of the adies' auxillary.

"As for musicals, etc., would say that we have a very fine theater here which has some of the leading road attractions, and the Norwich Free Academy takes a great deal of interest in musicals of various kinds, and every season we have the privilege of having at least four or five of the finest a auxiliary. a series of musicals and other enter- trolley, talnments, which brings very fine mu-sicians to our city. I would say, relative to schools, you are no doubt ac-quainted with the fact that we have here one of the best high schools in

New England in the Norwich Free Academy, and with this is connected an art school which is known as being a very good one.

As to wholesale houses, I would say that we have here at least three wholesale groceries, two wholesale meat and provisions, two wholesale commission fruit and produce mer-chants, and one specializing largely n butter, cheese and eggs. The fact s that the greater part of eastern connecticut is supplied at wholesale from our city.

"As to department stores, we have two exceedingly good ones for a city of this size; in fact, such as would compare favorably with anything be tween New York and Boston, except ing, of course, Providence.
"As to wearing apparel stores for women, we have, besides the two very complete departments in the two very fine such establishments, which carry very complete lines. The fact is that the competition is such that
